Stepping inside this longtime favorite for “classic Northern Italian food” is like “going to Italy while sitting in New York”; it’s been since 1987 and “in a bit of a time warp,” but the “spectacularly delicious” food, “luxurious” setting, and “exquisite” service “only gets better year after year” - the “fabulous lighting makes ”everyone look like a star,” but in fact it’s also still a bit of a “celebrity hangout,” party to its “understated entrance.”
